

Certified Organic by Marin Organic Certified Agriculture (MOCA)

Citrus Grafting Workshop

Saturday, June 29, 9am-12pm

- Each workshop participant will be supplied with all the necessary citrus rootstock to learn and perform citrus budding techniques, and graft a tree of their own.
- Over 20 varieties available to bud! Including: Specialty Citrus, Sweet Oranges, Limes, Lemons, Grapefruit, Pummelos, Mandarins, and more.
- Workshop led by John Valenzuela, chair of the Golden Gate Chapter of the California Rare Fruit Growers, with Indian Valley Organic Farm staff.
- For more information on workshop content, including varieties offered, contact John Valenzuela at (415) 246-8834

Cost: $30 - $40 (sliding scale). Class size limited to 30 participants.

To register : contact Amy Ridout at 415--720-2051

Email: aridout@conservationcorpsnorthbay.org

College of Marin, Indian Valley Campus – 1800 Ignacio Blvd., Novato

take the Ignacio Blvd. Exit west from Hwy 101

For more Information:

Proceeds support the Indian Valley Organic Farm & Garden and pay instructors

COLLEGE OF
MARIN

